IN SCHOOL - 4-H - - OFF TO A GOOD START

The organizaiton of In-School 4-H programs of Pamplin Elementary School started in high gear Friday, September 9, with Mrs. Shirley Walton setting the course.

To the fifth and sixth graders who had enrolled in the program in previous years, the enrollment process and meeting procedure was just "old hat." The third graders, however, who were not familiar with the program felt that it was an ounce of new adventure.

The groups will be meeting once a month in order to carry out their 4-H business. The students will all be enrolled in 4-H projects of interest to them and participating in many other 4-H activities.

MR. & MRS. TIMOTHY B. REYNOLDS

Wed In Afternoon Ceremony

The marriage of Miss Nancy Vaughan Lewis to Timothy Burton Reynolds was an event of Saturday, September 10, at 2:00 in the afternoon in the Liberty Baptist Church Sanctuary.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Lewis of Appomattox, Va. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Reynolds of Red House.

The Rev. H. Doyle Chauncey, pastor of the church, officiated at the double ring and candle lighting ceremony. The bride was escorted by her father and given in marriage by her parents.

The bride's dress was fashioned of white silk organza and re-embroidered Chantilly lace. The bodice of lace was finished with a high Victorian neckline and long Bishop sleeves. A full length skirt ended in a chapel train. A wide lace band finished the hemline of the skirt and encircled the train. She wore a mantilla of finger tip length of silk illusion edged with lace and appliqued with motifs of lace.

Mrs. Robert Poole, sister of the bride, was matron of honor and wore an empire design dress of green with an overlay of green illusion lace.

The bridesmaids were Miss Lanette Reynolds, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Darlene Jonnson. Their dresses were of empire design of yellow with an overlay of yellow illusion lace. They carried bouquets of shasta daises in corresponding colors.

Miss Cindy Poole, Miss Renee Lewis and Miss Tammy Lewis, niece of the bride, were flower girls. They were dressed in empire designed dresses of white eyelet carrying antique baskets filled with yellow petals.

Eddie Lewis and Bob Poole, nephews of the bride, carried the rings on satin & lace pillows.

The organist was Mrs. J. Franklin Vaughan who played a program of contemporary music. Soloists were Mrs. Kathy Vaughan singing "Evergreen," then joined by her husband, Joe Vaughan, to sing "Annie's Song." The Processional was the traditional Trumpet Voluntaire and Bridal Chorus, preceded by striking of the chimes. The recessional was the wedding march preceded by the ringing of the church steeple bells.

The church was decorated with fern, candelabra and white and yellow flowers with greens. The wedding was directed by Mrs. Raymond Jamerson.

After the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Lewis entertained with a reception in the church fellowship hall.

Following a wedding trip, the couple will live in Appomattox.
